LEBECK & CORIN

BAKESHOP BILL SIGNED. Hours of Labor Limited and Sanitary Rules Enacted.

Albany, May 17.—The governor has signed the bakery bill which applies to every city in the state. It limits the hours of labor to not more than sixty hours per week. It further provides that no cellar or basement now used as a bakery shall hereafter be occupied and used as a bakery, unless the proprietor shall have previously complied with the sanitary provisions of the act. No domestic animal, except cats, shall be allowed to remain in a room used as a bakery, pie or cake bakery, or any room in such bakery where flour or meat food products are stored.

The sleeping places for the persons employed in a bakery shall be kept separate from the room or rooms where flour or meat food products are manufactured or stored, and the factory inspector or a sanitary inspector may inspect such sleeping places if they are on the same floor as the bakery and order them cleaned or changed in compliance with the provisions of the law.

Owners or agents are made responsible for the condition of buildings. Six additional factory inspectors are to have charge of the enforcement of the law.

ELOPERS SERENADED.

Mount Kisco Residents Greet Mr. and Mrs. Pelton With a Brass Band.

Mount Kisco, May 17.—Frank Pelton, the junior member of the real estate firm of Carpenter & Pelton, of this village, who eloped with Miss Maud Gillet, returned here with his bride last night. They were married in Brooklyn, at the home of a relative of the bride, and passed their honeymoon in the Hygeia hotel, at Old Point Comfort, Va.

As soon as it became known about the young couple had returned the villagers decided to serenade them. The Mount Kisco brass band was secured and the serenade was given at the residence of Edward Carpenter, president of the Mount Kisco bank. It was a sort of reunion for the villagers, for nearly every one attended the serenade and congratulated the young couple.

BOOMERS AT RED LAKE.

Five Thousand People Ready for the Rush for Free Homes.

St. Paul, May 17.—Five thousand people are gathered about the borders of the Red Lake Indian Reservation waiting in the cold and rain for the signal that will allow them to rush for land. The farmers here are very rich, and the race for them promises to be exciting, although the mud will prevent any record-breaking speed.

At others waiting for land office hours have been standing in line for two days, and notwithstanding the weather, the number in line is undiminished. The reservation is an irregularly shaped territory in Northwestern Minnesota, with an estimated area of 4,000,000 acres, the larger portion of which will be thrown open today for settlement.

FINED THE TEXAS MILLER.

Judd Pleaded Guilty to Violation of Interstate Commerce Act.

Kansas City, May 17.—Homer A. Judd, formerly president of the Indian Rice Milling company, who pleaded guilty several days ago on four counts to violating the interstate commerce laws, has been sentenced by Judge Phillips to a fine of $25 on the second count only.

The first count was for conspiracy and the others were for reporting false weights. The penalties on the other counts will be fixed at the November term of court. Mr. Judd was recently indicted by the federal grand jury, and was brought here from Texas to undergo trial.

PERENNIAL QUARREL ON AT SARATOGA

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church Promises to Be Lively.

OLD AND NEW METHODS OF STUDY

The Pains and Distress Engendered by the Intermittent Brigs Case Will Again Be Brought On—Dawn of Peace is Still Far Away—Some Heavy Fighters Are Preparing for the Battle.

New York, May 17.—The perennial quarrel in the Presbyterian church over the old and new methods of Bible study, to have a fresh airing this week at Saratoga Springs. There on Thursday, at noon, opens the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, north and south, and the pains and distress engendered by the intermittent Brigs case are to be brought on again. This time from present outlook, there is promise of a session of greater severity, than the church has yet experienced in its long and bitter succession of assemblies, during which the pains and distress engendered by the Brigs case have been the subject of the most earnest and bitter controversy. This time from present outlook, there is promise of a session of greater severity, than the church has yet experienced in its long and bitter succession of assemblies, during which the pains and distress engendered by the Brigs case have been the subject of the most earnest and bitter controversy.

FINANCIAL POSITION

Equally important with the selection of a moderator will be consideration of the low financial status of the great benevolent boards of the church. The home and foreign mission boards are practically bankrupt, and such is their condition for two years.

VACCINATION IN SCHOOLS.

Milwaukee Man Gives Up His Long Fight Against the Rule.

Milwaukee, May 17.—The formal suit of the state ex rel. John Schell against the school board of the city has come to an end. The plaintiff has given up the fight, and the case has been withdrawn from the supreme court without costs to either party.

RUTGERS BOYS AT THE CURSUS.

The Boss Showman and His Army Awd the Uruly Students.

New Brunswick, May 17.—Friday night about 100 Rutgers college students, wearing white duck trousers and military caps, were seen in the streets of New Brunswick. When a crowd made his appearance he was gazed unmercifully. The trick dogs rushed out of the ring in disorder, and the crowd began to cheer. The Rutgers boys were seen to be in the act of tramping out, the "greatest living barbed rider on earth" said he would forfeit his salary before he would appear before the court.

CURSED.

For 16 Years Compelled to Eat a Pound of Poison Weekly.

Saved at Last by a Wonderful Antidote—An Almost Incredible Story of Suffering Told by a Louisianian.

It is wonderful what a human being will endure. Just look around and see the people day after day toiling recklessly with life and health, the most precious things we have.

The Lehigh Valley's New Flyer Will Make Its First Trip Today.

New York, May 17.—The Black Diamond Express, the new and magnificent train which the Lehigh Valley Railroad company is operating, will make its first trip today.

OBJECT TO AMERICAN PROSPERITY.

Keekiny's Presidential Chances Cause Consternation in Berlin.

Berlin, May 17.—The approaching presidential campaign in the United States is exciting unusual interest throughout Germany, particularly in the manufacturing centers. In consequence of the prospect that McKinley will be successful in securing the nomination in the Republican convention with more than ever chances of his election.

Extreme Prostration From Fevers

of every description, especially typhoid, is the doctor's fear and the patient's danger; medicine is of but little avail, sufficient nourishment to create new strength to carry the patient over the crisis is what is necessary, a persuading of the great machinery of the body to go on with its work is the end sought after; hence physicians recommend that greatest of concentrated food preparations, that creator of strength, maker of flesh tissue, and blood enricher, which, putting the vital organs in their normal condition, enables them to dispel disease. Dr. G. Curson Young of Phillipsburg, N. J., says, "I have used Bovinine with great satisfaction. One case, an old lady of seventy years, convalescing from typhoid fever, but very slowly, gastric irritation complicated with extreme prostration gave but a faint hope of recovery. I gave her Bovinine, —a complete restoration to health followed."

Bovinine
